Adult Sunday School Classes: 10:00am

Note: There will be NO regular adult classes on Oct. 2. Instead, please plan to come to the congregational meeting for the election of officers at 10:00am in the Sanctuary.

Eagle's Wings (Fellowship Hall)

- Topic: Rotates through an alternating study of Old and New Testament books of the Bible.
- Format: Class of diverse ages which opens with worship and prayer, followed by Bible teaching in lecture format. An emphasis is placed on community (shared worship with mutual prayer and support) along with biblical study.
- Participants: Truly multi-generational, this class is open to people of all ages and comfortable for people in all stages of the spiritual journey.

Table Talk and Listen (A-207)

- Topic: The sermon text of the day.
- Format: Class begins with sharing prayer requests, praying for one another, and then engages in discussion-style Bible study led by prepared facilitator.
- Participants: Open to singles & couples of all ages.

Students of the Word (A-208)

- Topic: Rotates through Old and New Testament books of the Bible.
- Format: A prepared facilitator guides discussion and application of Scripture text.
- Participants: Open to adults of all ages, with a focus on couples and singles with 30 years of wisdom or more.

Covenant Class (A-211)

- Format: Guest teachers are invited to share with the class using various formats.
- Participants: Adults with 60 or more years of wisdom.

Wanderers (A-215)

- Format: Video-based lesson followed by discussion (with Starbucks coffee in the room!)
- Participants: Mostly, we are parents with elementary-age children, but all are welcome.

Adult Bible Study (A-216)

- Topic: Rotates study of Scripture text and Biblical topics.
- Format: An in-depth and interactive study led by prepared facilitator.
- Participants: Open to all ages with a focus on adults with 50 years or more of wisdom.

Pathway (A-217)

- Topic: Biblical principles using topical study and Scripture.
- Format: Lecture with general class discussion and interaction (no small groups). Emphasis is on daily life application of Biblical study.
- Participants: Open to all ages with focus on adults who are parents.

Discipleship Class (A-219)

- Topic: Alternates Old and New Testament book study with occasional topical Bible study.
- Format: Each participant may study the selected text during the week to engage in small-group discussion on Sunday, led by rotating facilitators from the class.
- Participants: Open to all ages with a focus on couples and singles with 40 years or more of wisdom.

Women's Class (B-209)

- Format: Women of all ages studying scripture and Christian living.

Foundations (C-206)

- Format: We dig into and discuss Biblically based topical studies (ex: marriage, parenting, discipleship).
- Participants: Mostly we are parents with very young children, but all are welcome.

Journey (C-211)

- Format: Bible-based teaching with opportunity but, no pressure, to share.
- Participants: Open to all adults; mostly we are in our 20's and 30's. We'll journey through Scripture together and have some great discussion about how Scripture applies to our unique spiritual journeys.
